speculators were selling on the afternoon of the Kirmess entertainment at $1.50 each, fitty cents below price. It is suspected that they were the tests collected of the dancers, or else complimentary tickets. TRIBUNE reporter, yesterday, that detectives were being employed to find out where the tickets came from which entertainment at $1.50 cach, fifty cents below price. It is suspected that they were tickets collected of the dancers, or else complimentary tickets. Some dissatisfaction is felt at the bill sent by Professor Marwig for training the children and adults in the various dances. The children's dances appeared to be the same that had before been given at the Children's Carnival by the same children in the same costimes. It is also complained that people were unjustly charged for chairs to sit in and for checking clothing. As the bills have not all been paid nor all the receipts turned in the amount of profits is still unknown, but they will probably be about $5,000.

RISE IN CHICAGO GRAIN PRICES.

AN INTERESTING DAY IN THE MARKET-PROVI-SIONS DULL.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] CHICAGO, May 7.—The course of prices on the Board of Trade this morning was governed almost entirely by the financial situation in New York, as shown in the dispatches sent to leading houses here. June wheat, which closed yesterday at 93%, opened higher at 94% cents, and remained firm through the first two hours. It was reported that the worst was over, and that the other banks, regarding which bad rumors had been circulating, were all in good condition. The crowd turned in to buy wheat, and nearly all the local scalpers were soon busily employed in covering "shorts" or going "long" on the market. July wheat, which closed at 95%, opened at 95% cents, and soon advanced to 96. Nearly everybody was buying and "Nat" Jones appeared to be the only prominent seller. The bears occasionally spread rumors of further troubles East and succeeded in making trifling fluctuations. The weather was colder and that stiffened up the buils considerably. Corn was unusually strong, opening % higher at 55% cents for June and % higher for July at 57% cents. Both options advanced about 1 cent.

There was little doing in provisions. The appearance of firmness in the market continued through the morning. June wheat gradually crept up to 95% cents and July to 96% cents. But about this time it was plain that the buying orders were pretty well exhausted, while several of the firms, prominently identified with the buil movement heretofore, were quietly selling in liberal amounts. A flurry of extensive that they were selling June wheat for William Young & Co. It is universally understood in the alley that Young has for months been carrying large loads of wheat for Milwankee operators, so that the knowledge that he had at last turned bear was necessarily of some interest. It is believed, however, that Gay's brokers bought as much July wheat as they sold of June, simply changing their deal over to the next mouth. "Billy" Melicany is said to have sold about 500,000 bushels of "long" wheat, and to have shown a desire to sell more. He was unable to do so, however, owing to the rapid decline induced by such heavy unloading. There was also to day some pretty good buying. Kershaw and Milmire and Baldwin were noteworthy purchasers, buying, it is said, for Rouss, of Bailmore. At 50 cents everybody seemed to be a seller of corn, but below that price there was good buying. Cop reports for corn were univorable and receipts are in a candiden to favor a "buil" movement naturally. The almost total lack of any shipping demand is regarded as the only reason why corn does not take a "boom" of considerable dimensions.

with promises of something more interesting to come. Fork was absolutely featureless and there were so few transactions that it was difficult at times to make a quotation. Provisions were steady and exhibited a little less activity than usual. Pork advanced 15 cents and maintained a gain of about that much.

Exports 57 pkgs. all to Hamburg. At a further signal reduction in prices trade is fair, all the desirable grades seiling close up to arrivals. There is rather an unsettled feeling, however, as late Western advices indicate much lower prices and the prospect of an immediate increase in Eastern shipments. Creame y Butter shows most weakness; The is about the best jobliant prices for city frain or State and is becoming extreme for Farry Pennsylvania. Extra lowa, etc. is selling in a whole-rail way at 20c., with Extra Pirsts, which covers the buils of recipts, at 24:25c. Sweet Cream Greamery dut at 25:25c. State Dury of fine quality is more saintle than Creamery, special marks of Delaware County half-fines reach if c. when closely acleted, but for lines 26c is too seldon exceeded to warrant quoting higher, best myoloes from other sections sell at 25c. and a zood many Fair to Good lors at 21:220c. Extra Weish this bave had sales at 24-3c., but average best lines go at 23:25c. with Poor tube down to 19:25ce. Imitation reamery must be very Choice to exceed 25c, and 20c. is about the best rate as Pine Western Daw. Fairbory lacks character and there are but few marks good enough to bring 10:21c. Low grades skill very dull.
